Dear Sandy and Herb,

I am purposefully writing this letter prior to knowing the outcome of the business interruption settlement.

This is my way of showing you that I have complete confidence in your activities on my behalf. There is nothing pleasant to be found in the situation that results from an incident like a major fire. It is a terrible experience that I pray I will never go through again. The only bright moments in the bleak picture have come from you two.

You have been professional in every respect. You even found the time to listen and be sympathetic to tales I'm sure you've heard a hundred times before. It is indeed the unexpected acts of understanding and patience that make you stand apart. I appreciate this very much. Many, many thanks.

Yours truly,

Charles Belden
